DRESS CODE Venice Carnival Costume

The extravagance of the carnival in just one party because carnival in Venice means immersing yourself in another era, watching unexpected shows and becoming skilled dancers for a night. The event will begin with a tribute to the famous Casanova who "returns" to his favorite place, the Ridotto Hall, the beating heart of the sumptuous Venetian carnivals of the eighteenth century, a very popular spot among nobles, players and adventurers of the time. We will tell some of the less known and most daring episodes of his life described in his Memoir. The whole evening will be accompanied by the live music of the orchestra who will be strictly in period costumes and will set the rhythm of the party with singing interludes, ballets and evocative fantasies. The peak of the evening fun will be reached with the period dances which will turn the guests into the main characters of the Carnival Extravaganza. Under the expert guidance of the Dance Masters, each participant will be able to learn the basic steps of the dances of the European courts of the 1700s and 1800s. with the opera singers, dancers and the various performers who will perform on the stage of the main Apollonian Hall and will move between the tables of the Ammannati Hall, wearing sumptuous costumes.

Hours 08:00 PM- 1:30 AM

Address San Marco 1965, Campo San Fantin

DRESS CODE Venice Carnival Costume

The Tiepolo Ball at its 26th edition renews its partnership with a magical place in Venice: the Apollonian Halls of La Fenice Theatre, historically the halls dedicated to dance and entertainment in Venice and dedicated precisely to the God of the Sun Apollo, with clear reference to Louis XIV, the Sun King patron saint of ballet that here, in a carnival version, the guests can meet in his famous interpretation of the Sun, which he represented at fourteen years old in the Ballet de la Nuit and to which he owes his imperishable nickname.

Guests will be welcomed by a rich aperitif in the foyer of the theatre followed by a rich dinner in the Apollonian Halls (Grand Apollonian Hall and Ammannati Hall).

The menu designed by our chef, created ad hoc and with attention to details, will present fish dishes; for those who prefer a vegetarian or meat menu can indicate it at the time of booking. It will not be possible to change the menu on the day of the event and any food allergy must be reported in time.

During the evening the classical orchestra will create a lovely atmosphere together with the opera singers, dancers and the various performers who will perform on the stage of the main Apollonian hall and will move between the tables of the Ammannati Hall, wearing sumptuous costumes.

After dinner the grand ball will begin in the foyer of the theatre. There, the Dance Master with his partner will involve guests in historical dances of the European courts, and the orchestra will accompany them. Between dances, guests can enjoy hot chocolate, Venetian fritters and Prosecco.
